

WHAT IS GO?

Go is a game of strategy in which players take turns placing black and white stones on the intersections of a 19 x 19 grid. The object of the game is to surround territory. The player taking more territory wins the game. The rules of the game are simple and can be learned in minutes, but to master the game's strategy is a lifelong task.

THE HISTORY OF GO

Go is old! The game is believed to have originated as long as 4,000 years ago in China, and is still played with basically the same rules. There is a long history connecting Go with education - in ancient China Go was one of the four accomplishments people were urged to cultivate.

A WONDERFUL GAME!

For generations, people have been captivated by Go's exquisite subtlety, incisive tactics and profound strategy. Players of all levels engage in prodigiously intense over-the-board concentration.

If you like strategy games, you will probably love Go. More complex than even chess or bridge, Go is one of the most popular games in the world, with millions of players in Asia where the top players are considered national heroes. Join the fun!
